KAUA‘I GOLF COURSES PRAISED IN NEW GOLF GUIDEBOOK

Kaua‘i’s golf courses received top honors in The Golf Fanatic’s Guide to Hawaii, a new travel guidebook to the top 50 publicly accessible courses in the Aloha State.

“At the risk of sounding cheesy, Kaua‘i really is magical,” said author Bryan Fryklund. “Hitting a drive through lush tropical forests is a thrill every golfer should have. And it’s gorgeous – my photographer wouldn’t stop gushing about how much fun she was having.”

In the introduction to the chapter on Kaua‘i, Fryklund described the beauty of the Garden Isle and then wrote: “For the golfer, these same natural wonders help shape the kind of golf most people can only dream about.”

Many of Kaua‘i’s golf courses are prominently featured in the book’s Top Ten lists. Three courses were awarded honors for Top Ocean Holes, #11 at Kaua‘i Lagoons – Kiele, #16 at Poipu Bay Golf Course and Ocean #7 at Princeville’s Makai Course. Princeville’s Prince Course and Poipu Bay were named Top Classics; Wailua Muni and Puakea Golf Course were Top Bargains; Kaua‘i Lagoons, Princeville – Prince and Poipu Bay were Top Beauties; Princeville – Prince was Toughest while Kiahuna Golf Club was Most Forgiving; Princeville – Prince, Poipu Bay and Kaua‘i Lagoons had Top Practice Facilities; Princeville – Prince Course was an Author’s Choice; and Poipu Bay and Kiahuna’s restaurants were Top 19th Pukas.

Golf courses are not ranked within the top ten lists in the book.

PGA star Ernie Els wrote the foreword to The Golf Fanatic’s Guide to Hawaii, which has a publication date of November 11, 2008. For more information, visit www.HotTubPublishing.com.
